

Combining Sentences and Sentence Parts

Directions: Combine each sentence pair. For compound and complex sentences, use the conjunction shown in parentheses.

1. Ronda enjoys books by Judy Blume. She also likes books by Scott O'Dell.

_____

2. Our neighbor speaks French. He also speaks Spanish and Italian.

_____

3. Frederica found a photograph in the attic. She also found a diary there.

_____

4. My dad repairs furnaces. He is a skilled mechanic.

_____

5. We went on a whale watch. We saw three whales.

_____

6. Rick hates making oral book reports. He doesn't mind written ones. (but)

_____

7. The last book Paula read was Island of the Blue Dolphins. She enjoyed it very much. (and)

_____

8. The book cover caught my attention. It had a picture of horses.

_____

9. This summer my reading list is rather short. It contains some exciting books. (but)

_____

10. Tom enjoys talking to groups. He is comfortable making oral reports. (because)

_____